RULES AND REGULATIONS

YOUTH DIVISION ~ AGES 7 THROUGH 14 YEARS

1. The Youth Pig Scramble is open to all youth at least seven (7) years of age through fourteen (14) years of age on the day of the contest.
2. Contestants and parents must agree to assume responsibility for any injuries or damages resulting from participating in the contest.
3. All who plan to enter the scramble must complete entry blank and liability release forms and turn them into the event staff no later than 5:00 p.m., Saturday, August 8th. The committee will then review those submitted and make decisions regarding the eligibility of each prospective contestant.
4. Each contestant must be able to provide proper facilities to adequately care for the pig. If a contestant catches a pig but does not want to keep the pig they can receive $25 instead.
5. Pigs for the scramble will weigh around 40 (forty) pounds and above.
6. Scramble participants will meet behind the stage by 6:00 p.m., Saturday, August 8th.
7. Contest is limited to the first 100 youth who sign up. Contestants for the youth scramble must be at least seven (7) years of age through fourteen (14) years of age on the day of the scramble.
8. Once classes are divided up, there will be no changing.
9. Participants 10 and under must catch and hold the pig by at least one back leg to win.
10. Participants 11+ must catch and put the pig in a sack to win.
11. We reserve the right to make changes at our discretion and without prior notification.
